

Reginald F. Allard, Jr.

13thJuror, LLC

P.O. Box 1013

Southington, Connecticut 06489-5013

Voice: (860)-621-1013 ( Police Assistance - Code 1013 )

Fax: (860)-621-1013

Web: <http://www.expertcop.com>

Web: <http://www.13thjuror.com>

Web: <http://www.futureiswhatpresentdoes.com>

E-mail: 13thjuror@cox.net

13thjuror, LLC - Nature of Business: Training is the 13thjuror™

Expert Witness Opinions as to Police Procedures and Practices standards are subject to a continuum of probabilities rather than certainties or speculated possibilities. It is important for a jury to understand police procedures and training along with the underlying reasons police officers are given that training. If the officer forgets his/her training the jury is sure to remember it. To be reasonable any chosen police force option has to be designed to accomplish a lawful objective efficiently and fairly by balancing the rights of the individual with the government's right to establish domestic peace and tranquility.

The least amount of force reasonable is the greatest amount of force necessary.™

Reggie is a retired police officer, with 35 years of law enforcement command level training & experience and is currently the President of his company, 13thjuror, LLC ( www.expertcop.com). He has taught in excess of 13,000 law enforcement officers and provided law enforcement litigation support for Police Practices & Procedures in over 250 cases nation-wide since 1977. He is sponsored by the Southington Police Department as a certified law enforcement Instructor under the POSTC standards of the Connecticut Police Academy where he was a Training Officer for 23 years. He is a Pistol/Revolver Instructor certified by the Connecticut State Police to qualify citizens to obtain their Pistol/Revolver State permits to carry firearms.

expert cop

The next time you ask yourself this question, "Can a Cop really do that?" Reggie has the answer. ( http:// www.expertcop.com ).